Georgia Pearl Worley

Georgia Pearl (Hutson) Worley was born November 11, 1929, in Keysville, Mo., to the union of Noble and Bessie Mabel (Oxendine) Hutson and entered eternal life at 5:30 a.m. Sunday, August 20, 2000, at Cuba Manor, after a bout with cancer that lasted over three years.

She was united in marriage to William Calvin "Tad" Worley on March 8, 1946, at Cherryville, Mo. To this union two daughters were born. Pearl Jean (Jeannie) and Janet Gail. A devout Christian lady with a strong belief in church attendance, she took her children to church faithfully.

Georgia professed her faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior as a young girl. She served in several churches as teacher, secretary, and song leader. Bible school would find her serving in one or all of those capacities. Gospel music was very special to her.

She taught herself to chord on the piano and for several years the "Worley Family" sang together. Christmas was very special to her because of "Family," but also she enjoyed putting up the outdoor decorations because as she said "It might lift someone's spirits and brighten their day." She was preceded in death by her mother and father; premature unnamed twins; one sister, Juanita Land; one infant brother Jerry Hutson; her grandmother-in-law, Belle Freeman; two sisters-in-law, Helen Worley and Dorothy (Dot) Hutson; and four brothers-in-law, Orville S. (Buster) Worley, Herman Bilbrey, James Weaver, and Harold Land.

Those who survive to mourn her death are her husband, William Calvin "Tad" Worley of the home; daughters Jean Worley of Steelville, Mo., and Janet and husband Reggie Noot of rural Dunnegan, Mo.; two grandchildren, Rachel Noot, and Nathan and wife Christa Noot, all of Bolivar, Mo.

Two sisters, Lueretta Bilbrey of rural Steelville and Leota and husband Warren Evans of Steelville, Mo.; one brother Nobel, Jr. and wife Linda Hutson of Cherryville, Mo.; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. Her love was great and reached beyond her immediate family to many children who thought of her as Mother or Grandma Georgie; Louanne, Emma, David, Lance, Danny, Alisha, Jess, Brandon, and many more.

Georgia Pearl Worley (nee Hutson) lay in state after 3:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 22, 2000, at the Britton Brothers Funeral Home, Steelville, Mo. Services: Britton Chapel, Steelville, Mo. with Rev. Len Young officiating. Her daughters, Jean and Janet sang her favorite songs: "Blessed Redeemer," "How Great Thou Art," and "In The Garden," as she requested. Accompanist of the organ was Dennis Cottrell. Her desire was that all would come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Burial was in the Cherryville First Baptist Church Cemetery. Pallbearers: Kim Eaton, Lawrence Eaton, Jonathan Noot, Bob Santhuff, Harry White and Everett Williams.

Arrangements under the direction of Britton Funeral Home, Steelville, Mo.
