Records and/or assumptions

- Henry dies September 8, 1908.
- 1900 census has Henry living alone as a widower.   He is living next to his married daughter Johanna (Bleitner) Schmitter.
- Wihelimine dies in 1899.
- 1880 census there is not sign of Christine Bleitner nor is there a record of her death. We now have Henry with a new family; Williamia age 37, Rosa age 12 (she is a daughter of Henry and Christine), Henry Jr age 6, Lousia age 3 and Edward age 1.
- Feb 17, 1874 census list Henry as now married to a Wilhelmine "Mina" Stark.
- 1870 census for Christine (Trenkler) Bleitner living in Saint Louis, MO list a Rosine Schmidt age 64 who could well be her mother Rosetle Trenkler. Along with her family of: Hanna Bleitner age 10, Kate Bleitner age 8. Jenny Bleitner age 4 and Rosa Bleitner age 2. Henry is listed at an age of 42 and Christine at 26.
- There is a listing for a Henry Bleitner of being in the Civil War sometime in the area of 1861 – 1865 which could relate to the span of 4 year between two of their children.

- July 2, 1859 Missouri Marriage Records list Miss Christina (Drenkler) Trenkler as married to Mr. Henry Bleitner. Henry was 16 years older than Christina who must have been married at age 14 to 15 years old.
- Henry Immigration to the US was 1853 in New York from Bremen, Germany aboard the Ship Eurapa. He was 22 year old and appeared on the list by himself.

The OLD St. Marcus Cemetery had suffered years of neglect and valdalism. About 1972
the city of St.
Louis converted it to a "passive" park. Some of the tombstones have been gathered together and incorporated into a stone wall -- but they are no longer where they were set.
A few large "obilisk" type stones do remain
where they were set.
